

Foundation gives seniors mailboxes, emphasizes community support

Chase County Schools seniors each received mailboxes from the Imperial Community Foundation Fund (ICFF) prior to their graduation rehearsal last week. ICFF Chair Elizabeth Haarberg, who taught many of the students in kindergarten, expressed the pride felt for each student and how the community takes a vested interest in their success. Whether they choose to make Imperial home now or to someday return, the community would be pleased. ICFF is an affiliated fund of the Nebraska Community Foundation. Other fund advisory members present were Tyler Pribbeno, Elna Johnson and Lori Pankonin. (Johnson Publications photo)
