

c Copyright 2017 \All Rights Reserved

Skating project
receives grant

COLUMBUS — Columbus Area Future Fund recently presented a $2,500 check to Elizabeth Blaser in support of Columbus Ice, an outdoor public ice skating recreational area and warming shelter.

Blaser, a sophomore at Columbus High School, is collaborating with Columbus Public Schools and the city to design and build

COURTESY PHOTOS

Columbus Area Future Fund presented a $2,500 check to Elizabeth Blaser, second from right, for her Columbus Ice project. Also pictured, from left, are Adam Urkoski, K.C. Belitz, Ashley Karges and Bud Fleischer.