

NCCFF offers non-traditional scholarships

The Nebraska City Community Foundation Fund is pleased to announce that non-traditional scholarships will again be offered this year.

The $2,000 scholarships are available to individuals who have not been on a continuous course of study since high school graduation and who wish to continue their education.

Applications are available at the offices of David Partsch, Rowe Memorial Safety Complex, 1518 Central Ave., or VanderVeen & Goracke, 1720 S. 11th St.

Completed applications must be submitted no later than Aug. 15.

The Nebraska City Community Foundation Fund is an affiliate of the Nebraska Community Foundation.
